

MENTORSHIP PROGRAM

This program is designed to build the foundation of your business and help you develop the necessary skills for a long lasting Real Estate Career.

The program will pair you with a seasoned mentor to work with on a one on one basis. Our program will focus on mastering the art of showing property, listing property and transaction mastery. We teach you the art of conversion and provide you call nights to practice. Leads are provided for you to call as well as shoulder to shoulder support for your first four transactions.

We offer you a blanket of security and complete review of all your transactions so that there is no fear in failing. Our success rate is one of the best in country, when 9 out of 10 realtors fail their first year our realtors thrive in an environment of sharing is caring mentality.

The gift of the passion of the new agent is contagious and the "Mentor Give Back Platform" is as much a learning tool for the master agent as it is for the agent starting their career.
